

Graduate Diploma in Logistics & Supply Chain Management (GDLSCM)

Program Objectives

The course will provide you with hard-hitting, focused, up-to-date information on the latest and most effective logistics technology tool, a practical business management program with a focus on managing the flow of materials, people, and services, to satisfy customer demand and to ensure success in the difficult times ahead.

Who Should Attend

This program is designed for those who are working as materials manager, plant manager, sourcing manager, purchasing & inventory manager, procurement & operations manager, purchasing agents, senior buyers, planners & buyers, sourcing engineers, equipment engineers, transport manager, forwarders and traffic & warehouse supervisors.

Entry Requirement

Applicants must have a recognized bachelor's degree and above 18 years of age.

Applicants must have at least 2 years of relevant working experience in the logistics industry.

Mature Candidate enrolment:

Mature candidates may be considered for entry on a case-to-case basis:

Mature candidates' criteria:

- a. At least 30 years of age
- b. Minimum 8 years of working experience.

GDLSCM Program Coverage

The programme is of 12 months duration and a 12-weeks management project.

- International Logistics & Supply Chain Management
- Integrated Materials & Procurement Management
- International Operations Management
- Resilience & Supply Chain Security Management
- Balanced Scorecard
- Business Strategy in Logistics & Supply Chain Management
- Management Project

Assessment and Examinations

The GDLSCM programme examination is a continuous assessment through written assignments, special projects, and examinations. This ensures that actual application of concepts and knowledge with professional experience will make learning more practical and relevant.

